

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The northwestern area of South Dakota was opened up and settled as a result of the Homestead Act, and the extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad expanding from the Great Lakes to Puget Sound; and,

Whereas, The city of Lemmon, South Dakota, was formed with the first sale of lots on October 3, 1907; and,

Whereas, The citizens of Lemmon will gather July 10-15, 2007, to celebrate their 100th anniversary as a community; and,

Whereas, The Centennial celebration will also commemorate South Dakota Hall of Fame member G.E. Lemmon's 150th birthday, for whom the community was named; and,

Whereas, The city of Lemmon takes pride in the 100 years of development and change and will recognize the past and current residents who have helped mold Lemmon into a fine community in which to live, work and raise a family; and,

Whereas, The current residents look forward to a bright future as a center of culture and industry, and it is fitting and proper as governor of the state of South Dakota to extend best wishes for a successful centennial celebration:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 10-15, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
